

Social protection in health and pensions in Latin America and the Caribbean: Advancing gender equality

Side event

October 27, 2016 | Time: 13h00-14h30 | Venue: Radisson Hotel, Conference Room (4th floor)

13:00-13:10

Opening and welcome

Introduction: Demographic challenges and implications for social protection in the region

Juan Jose Calvo, UNFPA Representative for Argentina and Uruguay

13:10-13:50

Panel

Women's rights and pension system reforms: reducing gaps?

Flavia Marco, ECLAC Consultant

Health insurance: challenges to achieving gender equality in health

Anna Coates, Unit Chief Gender and Cultural Diversity, PAHO/WHO

Universal social protection: building systems for equality

Anna Hernandez, Coordinator for the Social Policy Observatory of the Social Policy Coordination Cabinet of the Vicepresidency of the Dominican Republic

Gender equality in health and social security reforms in the Oriental Republic of Uruguay

Cristina Lustemberg, Deputy Minister of Health, Oriental Republic of Uruguay

13:50-14:20

Q&A

14:20-14:30

Closing

Sandra Castañeda, Coordinator, Health Network of Latin American and Caribbean Women

Simultaneous translation available in English, Spanish and Portuguese.
Light lunch included.